Hoover Parks and Recreation Department Behavior Code of Conduct

Hoover Parks & Recreation strives to maintain a fun, safe and wholesome environment for all day camp participants. We realize each child is an individual, however, misconduct will not be tolerated. Positive reinforcement is the preferred approach to discipline and all counselors strive to meet that goal.

In keeping with our program goals, we encourage fun for all of our participants; however, certain rules are necessary to ensure everyone's safety and enjoyment.

Behavior

Participants are expected to exhibit appropriate behavior at all times. The Hoover Parks and Recreation Department behavior code is as follows:

Participants shall:

- Listen and follow instructions.
- Remain with the group (not run off by their selves).
- Remain seated and keep all hands and arms inside the vehicle while being transported on field trips.
- Show respect to all participants and staff.
- Refrain from using foul language.
- Refrain from fighting, pushing or shoving.
- Refrain from causing bodily harm to him/her self or others.
- Show respect to equipment, supplies, and facilities.

Additional rules may be developed for specific programs, camps, and other activities as deemed necessary.

Discipline

A caring and positive approach will be used regarding discipline. The Hoover Parks and Recreation Department staff will review rules and explain consequences at the beginning of the program. Each situation that arises will be evaluated on its own merit.

Procedure

If a participant exhibits inappropriate behavior, any one or more of the following actions may be taken, depending on the severity of the act.

- Warning is given.
- Time – out from program (2 – 5 minutes).
- Report to full-time program supervisor.
- Parent contacted by supervisor if misbehavior continues, written warning administered.
- Plan formulated with parent to modify behavior.

If a participant's behavior does not improve, depending on the severity of the act, the participant may be dismissed from the program. The Hoover Parks and Recreation Department reserves the right to dismiss at any time, a participant whose behavior endangers the safety of him or herself or others. The Superintendent will make final determination on dismissals.
